

Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia Regulations Master Courses in Music Studies 2021-2022

Composition

Course Teacher Ivan Fedele

Admission

Admission requirements

- The three-year course is open to composers of any nationality who are no more than 35 years of age.
- Candidates must possess a 1st or 2nd Level Degree or Conservatory Diploma (old Italian system) earned in the discipline for which they are applying. If the degree was obtained abroad, it will be considered valid if it has been declared equivalent to a Conservatory diploma; it is the responsibility of any student admitted to a course to obtain the equivalence of the foreign qualification, pursuant to applicable Italian laws.

Exceptions to these requirements may be permitted only in exceptional cases, in the event of special, recognized artistic qualities and subject to the evaluation and approval of both the teacher and the President of the Accademia.

Provided that the above requirements are met, admission to the course is subject to an entrance examination.

Applications for admission

Applications for admission must be submitted online (form <https://santacecilia.it/en/master-courses/form-di-iscrizione-corsi-di-perfezionamento>) by no later than 30 June 2021.

Proof of the application being successfully sent will consist of the e-mail notification sent by the Accademia.

The following documents must be attached to the online application:

- diploma certificate;
- artistic CV;
- examination programma (list of submitted scores)
- photocopy of passport or identification document;
- proof of payment of the examination admission fee.

Entrance examination procedures and programme

Assessment by the Examination Panel of the compositions submitted by the candidates, and discussion of the topics proposed by the examination Panel.

Applicants are required to submit 3 scores composed for different instrumentations. Applicants may attach to the scores any recordings of these compositions, if available. The files must have the following specifications:

- scores in PDF format, video recordings in mp4 format, audio recordings in mp3 format;
- the single files must be named with SURNAME and name of the applicant, title of the piece (eg ROSSI Mario _Empireo.pdf). To facilitate indexing, please respect the order indicated.

Scores and recordings that do not comply with the aforementioned requirements will not be considered valid.

Scores and recordings (if available) must be sent via Wettransfer to didattica@santacecilia.it by no later than 30 June 2021.

Applicants will be e-mailed the convocation notice to the examination, with the indication of the platform and connection procedures. During examination, the candidates must make sure that the scores submitted for admission may be viewed remotely by the Panel.

Attendance

Every course year is organized in twenty days of lessons plus participation in the artistic activities included in the course curriculum.

Inability to attend one or more scheduled lessons shall be communicated to the teacher and to academic office (segreteria didattica) by sending e-mail to didattica@santacecilia.it.

Repeated and/or unjustified absences may result in the exclusion from the promotion or diploma examination.

In the event of interruption of the course for health-related reasons, the student shall be entitled to repeat the interrupted course year during the subsequent academic year, upon submitting a medical certificate.

Attendance cannot be suspended on educational or artistic grounds; in the event of voluntary interruption of attendance, a new admission application will have to be submitted for the subsequent year, and the corresponding examination will have to be taken.

For each student, the overall duration of attendance will be determined by the teacher, and cannot exceed three years.

Students are required to inform their teacher of any educational and/or artistic activities outside the Accademia that are planned during course attendance; in this regard, students enrolled in other courses are asked to submit a certificate of enrolment of the attended courses (two-year programme / master's programme / etc.).

Promotion examinations

At the end of each year of attendance, students shall take an examination for promotion to the subsequent course year, with the programmes indicated below:

Promotion from course year I to II

The examination consists of two parts; assessment of each part shall go towards determining the final examination grade. The parts are the following:

1. public performance of a composition by the student, written expressly during the first course year, in accordance with the indications of duration and instrumentation determined by the President in agreement with the instructor. The student is required to deliver complete and final materials for their compositions (score and parts) by no later than the date established and announced at the start of the academic year. The performance is normally scheduled on the occasion of the end-of-year recitals. The Panel will assign a grade to be taken account of in the final judgment;
2. interview with the Examination Panel; summary assessment of works done during the course, and extemporaneous discussion of subjects proposed by the Panel, suggested by the works the student has submitted, or entirely independent of them.

Promotion from course year II to III

The examination consists of two parts; assessment of each part shall go towards determining the final examination grade. The parts are the following:

1. public performance of a composition by the student, written expressly during the first course year, in accordance with the indications of duration and instrumentation determined by the President in agreement with the instructor. The student is required to deliver complete and final materials for their compositions (score and parts) by no later than the date established and announced at the start of the academic year. The performance is normally scheduled on the occasion of the end-of-year recitals. The Panel will assign a grade to be taken account of in the final judgment;
2. interview with the Examination Panel; summary assessment of works done during the course, and extemporaneous discussion of subjects proposed by the Panel, suggested by the works the student has submitted, or entirely independent of them.

Should a student fail to pass a promotion examination, he/she shall be entitled to re-apply for admission to the course only after one academic year has passed after the one during which he/she was not confirmed.

Diploma examination

The examination is held in two phases:

1. public performance of a composition by the candidate, written expressly for the examination, in accordance with the indications of duration and instrumentation determined by the President in agreement with the teacher. Diploma candidates are required to deliver complete and final materials for their compositions (score and parts) by no later than the date established and announced at the start of the academic year;
2. interview with the Examination Panel; summary assessment of works done during the course, and extemporaneous discussion of subjects proposed by the Panel, suggested by the works the candidate has submitted, or entirely independent of them.

Decisions made by Examination Panels for admissions, promotions and diplomas are final and indisputable.
