Candidates must provide a valid identification document and provide all musical materials required for the examination, including scores for the accompanist.; the Academy will provide applicants with a Piano accompanist.

La Commissione, a suo insindacabile giudizio, potrà chiedere al candidato l'esecuzione di tutto o di parte del programma d'esame.

The Examination Board may request full or partial performance of the programme.

The pieces shall be prepared in full and the concertos and solo pieces shall be performed from memory.

The Panel may ask the candidates to describe the motivations and objectives connected to attending the course

No alternative examination dates will be offered.

Duration

The course runs over a period of three years.

The course includes:

- two intermediate progression examinations (Year I to II; Year II to III);
- a final Diploma examination at the conclusion of Year III.

In exceptional circumstances, and subject to approval by the Academic Board, the Diploma examination may be undertaken at the conclusion of Year II.

Attendance

Each academic year shall comprise twenty-five days of lessons delivered by the Professor. Students shall be required to attend a minimum of twelve individual lessons per year, in addition to all collective and artistic activities included within the curriculum.

Attendance schedules are agreed directly with the Professor. Any Inability to attend one or more scheduled lessons shall be communicated to the Professor and to the Academic Office (Segreteria)

Didattica. didattica@santacecilia.it) as far in advance as possible, in order to facilitate rescheduling where possible.

Repeated and/or unjustified absences may result in the exclusion from the progression to the next academic year or Diploma examinations.

In the event of interruption due to certified health reasons, the student may be permitted to repeat the interrupted academic year in the subsequent year, subject to submission of appropriate medical documentation. Suspension of attendance for educational or artistic reasons shall not be permitted. In cases of voluntary withdrawal, a new application for admission shall be required, and the entrance examination must be undertaken again.

Students are required to inform their Professor of any external educational and/or artistic commitments during the course. In the case where, students enrolled in other courses are asked to submit a certificate of enrolment of the attended courses (2nd level / master programmes, etc.).

Chamber Music examination

In order to be admitted to the Diploma Examination, students must undertake, during the second year of attendance, a Chamber Music assessment. This will consist of the preparation and performance of a chamber work, in collaboration with other students and with the Faculty, as part of a concert scheduled during the academic year in the halls of the Auditorium Parco della Musica.

This examination/concert will be prepared under the supervision of Maestro Andrea Lucchesini, who will define the programme and performance modalities.

Students who are simultaneously enrolled in, or have already graduated from, the Academy's Chamber Music course are exempt from this examination, though they may still participate if they wish. Instrumental students who collaborate with a Chamber Music ensemble for the preparation and performance of the Diploma examination are also exempt.

Attendance of Chamber Music courses at other institutions will not be considered valid for exemption.

Progression examinations

At the end of each academic year, students must pass an examination in order to confirm their progress and advance to the following year. The required programmes are as follows:

Progression from Year I to Year II

Performance of a programme consisting of three works: one from the Classical or Baroque repertoire, one from the Romantic repertoire, one from the Modern/Contemporary repertoire. The entire programme must be prepared. Concertos and solo works must be performed from memory.

The Examination Board may request the performance of all or part of the submitted programme.

Progression from Year II to Year III

Performance of a programme consisting of three works, different from those presented in the previous year: one from the Classical or Baroque repertoire, one from the Romantic repertoire, one from the Modern/Contemporary repertoire.

The entire programme must be prepared. Concertos and solo works must be performed from memory.

The Examination Board may request the performance of all or part of the submitted programme.

If a student does not pass the progression examination, they may reapply for admission to the course only after at least one academic year has elapsed.

Diploma examination

The Diploma Examination consists of the public performance of a concert programme of approximately one hour, comprising three major works from the cello repertoire.

The programme will be selected by the President of the Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia from three different programme proposals submitted by the candidate, subject to prior approval by the teacher, within the deadline communicated at the beginning of the academic year.

The programme must include: one work for solo cello or another virtuosic work, with or without piano accompaniment; one Sonata, one Concerto

The selected programme will be communicated to the candidate 40 (forty) days prior to the Diploma concert.

In addition, the programme will include the performance of a short piece assigned by the Academic Board 40 (forty) days prior to the examination date.

The programme must be performed in its entirety. Concertos and solo works must be performed from memory.

The decisions of the Examination Committees regarding admission, progression, and the Diploma are final and not subject to appeal.
